PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

MAY 23, 2001

This Proxy Statement is furnished to the shareholders of Rocky Shoes & Boots, Inc. (the "Company") in connection with the solicitation of proxies to be used in voting at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on May 23, 2001, and at any adjournment thereof. The enclosed proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of the Company. This Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy will be first sent or given to the Company's shareholders on approximately April 23, 2001.

The Company will bear the cost of the solicitation of proxies, including the charges and expenses of brokerage firms and others for forwarding solicitation material to beneficial owners of stock. Representatives of the Company may solicit proxies by mail, telegram, telephone, or personal interview.

The shares represented by the accompanying proxy will be voted as directed if the proxy is properly signed and received by the Company before the meeting. The proxy will be voted FOR the nominees for director named herein and FOR the ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as independent public accountants if no direction is made to the contrary. Any shareholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before it is exercised by filing a written notice with the Secretary of the Company prior to the meeting. Shareholders who attend the meeting may vote in person and their proxies will not be used.

Holders of record of Common Stock of the Company at the close of business on March 30, 2001, will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. At that time, the Company had 4,489,215 shares of Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote. Each share of Common Stock outstanding on the record date entitles the holder to one vote on each matter submitted at the Annual Meeting.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum. Broker non-votes occur when brokers, who hold their customers' shares in street name, sign and submit proxies for such shares and vote such shares on some matters, but not others. Typically, this would occur when brokers have not received any instructions from their customers, in which case the brokers, as the holders of record, are permitted to vote on "routine" matters, which typically include the election of directors and ratification of independent public accountants.

The election of each director nominee requires the favorable vote of a plurality of all votes cast by the holders of Common Stock at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Proxies that are marked "Withhold Authority" and broker non-votes will not be counted toward such nominee's achievement of a plurality and thus will have no effect. Each other matter to be submitted to the shareholders for approval or ratification at the Annual Meeting requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Common Stock present and entitled to vote on the matter. For purposes of determining the number of shares of Common Stock voting on the matter, abstentions will be counted and will have the effect of a negative vote; broker non-votes will not be counted and thus will have no effect.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Company's Code of Regulations provides for a classified board of directors with two classes. Each class of directors consists, as nearly as practical, of one-half of the total number of directors. The total number of authorized directors has been fixed by the Board of Directors at eight. The Board of Directors proposes the election of all four incumbent directors at the 2001 Annual Meeting of Shareholders to continue their service as Class I Directors. The four incumbent Class II Directors will continue in office. The nominees for Class I Directors, if elected, will serve for a two-year term expiring at the 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Mike Brooks, Glenn E. Corlett, Stanley I. Kravetz, and James L. Stewart are currently Class I Directors of the Company and are being nominated by the Board of Directors for re-election as Class I Directors.

It is intended that, unless otherwise directed, the shares represented by the enclosed proxy will be voted FOR the election of Messrs. Brooks, Corlett, Kravetz and Stewart as Class I Directors. In the event that any of the nominees for director should become unavailable, the number of directors of the Company may be decreased pursuant to the Company's Code of Regulations, or the Board of Directors may designate a substitute nominee, in which event the shares represented by the enclosed proxy will be voted for such substitute nominee.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF EACH OF THE NOMINEES FOR DIRECTOR.

The following table sets forth for each nominee and each continuing director of the Company, such person's name, age, the year in which he or she became a director of the Company, and his or her position with the Company and the Company's subsidiaries, Five Star Enterprises Ltd. ("Five Star") and Lifestyle Footwear, Inc. ("Lifestyle"):

The Board of Directors believes that the reappointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2001, is appropriate because of the firm's reputation, qualifications, and experience. - (3) The amounts shown under "All Other Compensation" for Messrs. Brooks and Fraedrich, include $6,175 and $3,519, respectively for 1998, and $12,177 and $6,790, respectively for 1999, and $13,402 and $8,446, respectively for 2000, representing the dollar value of the benefit of premiums paid for a split-dollar life insurance policy reflecting the present value of the economic benefit of the premiums paid by the Company during the fiscal year indicated.

(4) Mr. Friday resigned from the Company, effective November 15, 2000.

(1) The amounts under the columns labeled "5%($)" and "10%($)" are included by the Company pursuant to certain rules promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission and are not intended to forecast future appreciation, if any, in the price of the Company's Common Stock. Such amounts are based on the assumption that the option holders hold the options granted for their full term. The actual value of the options will vary in accordance with the market price of the Company's Common Stock. The column headed "0%($)" is included to illustrate that the options were granted at fair market value and option holders will not recognize any gain without an increase in the stock price, which increase benefits all shareholders commensurately.

(2) On January 1, 2000, incentive options to purchase 10,000 shares of Common Stock were granted to Mr. Brooks and Mr. Fraedrich. All incentive options were granted at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Company's Common Stock on the date of grant. These options vest and become exercisable at a rate of 25% per year employed after the date of grant, and expire on the eighth anniversary of the date of grant.

(3) On January 1, 2000, an incentive option to purchase 10,000 shares of Common Stock was granted to Mr. Friday. The option was granted at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Company's Common Stock on the date of grant. This option vests and becomes exercisable at a rate of 25% per year employed after the date of grant, and expire on the eighth anniversary of the date of grant. Because Mr. Friday resigned from the Company on November 15, 2000, all of these options have terminated.

(1) Represents the total gain which would have been realized if all in-the-money options held at fiscal year-end had been exercised, determined by multiplying the number of shares underlying the options by the difference between the per share option exercise price and per share fair market value at year-end. An option is in-the-money if the fair market value of the underlying shares exceeds the exercise price of the option.

RETIREMENT PLAN

The Company's Restated Retirement Plan for Non-Union Employees (the "Retirement Plan") is a defined benefit pension plan which is intended to qualify under Sections 401(a) and 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). Employees, excluding leased employees and those employees covered by a collective bargaining agreement, are eligible to participate in the Retirement Plan if they are at least 21 years old and have worked at least 1,000 hours for the Company over a period of one year.

The Retirement Plan provides for the payment of a monthly retirement benefit commencing at age 65, subject to certain early and late retirement options. The amount of the monthly benefit is determined pursuant to a formula contained in the Retirement Plan which takes the greater of 1.5% of the employee's average monthly compensation, or $10.00, and multiplies it by the employee's number of years of credited service up to a maximum of 35 years. The average monthly compensation is determined for the three consecutive years which gives the participant the highest average. Compensation for this purpose means wages which are subject to federal income tax withholding.

The following table illustrates the operation of the Retirement Plan by showing various annual retirement benefits payable to participating employees in the compensation and years of service classifications indicated, assuming that participants retire at age 65 and that each participant elects a joint and survivor annuity for the lives of the participant and his or her spouse. There is no reduction of benefits for Social Security retirement income.

*The maximum pay level recognized at this time is $170,000. This maximum is indexed with the COLA % each year, with $10,000 incremental increases.

For each of the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table, the compensation covered by the Retirement Plan for 2000, was $170,000 for Mr. Brooks, $150,000 for Mr. Fraedrich, and $153,846 for Mr. Friday. The Code imposes limitations on the amount of annual benefits payable to an individual under the Retirement Plan. This limit for the 2000 Plan Year is $135,000. The estimated years of service for each of the executive officers as of December 31, 2000, was 25.7 years for Mr. Brooks, 29.5 years for Mr. Fraedrich, and 2.25 years for Mr. Friday.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

On July 1, 1995, Messrs. Brooks and Fraedrich entered into employment agreements with the Company. Each of these employment agreements provides for a minimum base salary and a covenant not-to-compete. The employment agreements are substantially identical, except with respect to minimum annual base salary, which is $210,000 for Mr. Brooks and $160,000 for Mr. Fraedrich for fiscal 2000. The employment agreements are "at will" and, therefore, do not have a stated term.

The covenant not-to-compete contained in Messrs. Brooks and Fraedrich's employment agreements is for the time of employment, plus a one-year period following termination of employment; provided, that if the employee's employment is terminated following a change in control (as defined in the employment agreements), the covenant not-to-compete will terminate immediately. If the agreement is terminated as a result of a change in control, or if the employee resigns after a change in control, the employee is entitled to receive 2.99 times his average annual compensation, including bonuses and taxable fringe benefits, over the last five taxable years immediately preceding the date of change in control, but in no event will such payments constitute excess parachute payments within the meaning of the Code. Under the employment agreements, a change in control is deemed to have occurred if (i) the Company or 50% or more of its assets or earning power is acquired and less than a majority of the outstanding voting shares of the survivor of such acquisition is owned, immediately after such acquisition, by the owners of the voting shares of the Company outstanding immediately prior to such acquisition, or (ii) there is a change in a majority of the Board of Directors of the Company over any two-year period, which has not been approved in advance by at least two-thirds of the directors of the Company in office at the beginning of the period.

On April 27, 1999, Mr. Friday entered into an employment agreement with the Company. Mr. Friday resigned his employment and office with the Company, effective November 15, 2000. Mr. Friday's employment agreement provided for a minimum base salary and a covenant not-to-compete. Mr. Friday's minimum annual base salary for fiscal 2000 was $200,000. The agreement was "at will" and, therefore, did not have a stated term. The covenant not-to-compete contained in Mr. Friday's employment agreement was for the time of employment, plus a six-month period following termination of employment.

The following Compensation Committee Report, Performance Graph, and Audit Committee Report shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this Proxy Statement into any of the Company's filings under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates this information by reference, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under such Acts.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Stock Option and Compensation Committee (the "Compensation Committee") has the authority and responsibility to determine and administer the Company's officer compensation policies and to establish the salaries of executive officers, the formula for bonus awards to executive officers, and the grant of stock options to executive officers and other key employees under the Company's 1995 Stock Option Plan. The Compensation Committee consists solely of independent directors of the Company. In general, the philosophy of the Compensation Committee is to attract and retain qualified executives, reward current and past individual performance, provide short-term and long-term incentives for superior future performance, and relate total compensation to individual performance and performance of the Company.

On July 1, 1995, the Company entered into employment contracts, approved by the Company's Board of Directors, with Mr. Brooks and Mr. Fraedrich. The base salaries under the employment contracts are subject to review by the Compensation Committee and may be increased periodically.

The determination of executive officer base salaries for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000, including increases to the minimum base salaries fixed by the employment contracts of certain executive officers (see EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS above), was based primarily on subjective factors, such as the Compensation Committee's perception of individual performance and the executive officer's contribution to the overall performance of the Company, and not on specific criteria. No specific weight was given to any of these factors because each of these factors was considered significant and the relevance of each varies depending upon an officer's responsibilities. These factors were also taken into account when the Compensation Committee established Mike Brooks' salary at $210,000 for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000.

The Company established an executive bonus program for 2000. The bonuses payable under the executive bonus program were based on percentages of a participant's salary. The amount of the percentage bonus depended on the Company's pre-tax and pre-bonus profits. The percentages ranged from 16% to 56%, depending on the officer and the amount of pre-tax profit. Three of the Company's executive officers, including Mike Brooks, were eligible to participate in the executive bonus pool for 2000. The percentages issued under the program were allocated at the beginning of 2000 among these three executive officers based upon the Compensation Committee's subjective perception of each executive officer's contribution to the overall profitability of the Company. No bonuses were paid to any executive officers by the Company in 2000, because the Company's profitability was below the minimum set for bonuses.

The purpose of the Company's 1995 Stock Option Plan is to provide long-term incentives to key employees and motivate key employees to improve the performance of the Company's Common Stock. Stock option awards are considered annually by the Compensation Committee. The value of the stock options awarded is entirely dependent upon the Company's stock performance over a period of time.

The number of shares of Common Stock subject to the options granted during 2000, was determined based on a subjective evaluation of the past performance of the individual, the total compensation being paid to the individual, the individual's scope of responsibility, and the anticipated value of the individual's contribution to the Company's future performance. No specific weight was given to any of these factors. Although information as to the options awarded to each executive officer during previous years was reviewed by the Compensation Committee, the Compensation Committee did not consider the total amount of options held by an officer in determining the size of an option awarded for 2000.

Options were granted under the 1995 Stock Option Plan by the Company during 2000 to five executive officers, including Mike Brooks, and 31 other key employees. Each stock option awarded during 2000 had an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the underlying Common Stock of the Company on the date of the grant. The options granted during 2000 vest and become exercisable at the rate of 25% per year if the option holder remains employed at the time of vesting and terminate eight years from the date of grant. All options granted during 2000 to employees are subject to certain forfeiture restrictions in the 1995 Stock Option Plan. Mike Brooks received 10,000 option shares, 5.2% of all option shares granted to employees during 2000.

The Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 amended the Code to add Section 162(m) which bars a deduction to any publicly held corporation for compensation paid to a "covered employee" in excess of $1,000,000 per year. The Compensation Committee does not believe that this law will impact the Company because the current level of compensation for each of the Company's executive officers is well below the $1,000,000 salary limitation.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, composed entirely of independent directors, met five times in fiscal 2000. The Audit Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting, auditing and reporting practices of the corporation and such other duties as directed by the Board. The full responsibilities of the Audit Committee are set forth in its charter, as adopted by the Board of Directors, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix A.

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board the selection of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company's independent public accountants. The Audit Committee:

- o discussed and considered the independence of Deloitte & Touche LLP, reviewing as necessary all relationships and services which might bear on the objectivity of the independent public accountants;
- o received written affirmation that Deloitte & Touche LLP is in fact independent;
- o discussed the overall audit process, receiving and reviewing all reports;
- o involved Deloitte & Touche LLP in the Audit Committee's review of the Company's financial statements and related reports with management;
- o provided to Deloitte & Touche LLP full access to the Audit Committee and the Board to report on any and all appropriate matters; and
- o discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP all matters required to be reviewed by auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, including those described in Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, Communication with Audit Committees.

Both the Chief Financial Officer and Deloitte & Touche LLP were afforded the routine opportunity to meet privately with the Audit Committee and were encouraged to discuss any matters they desired.

The Audit Committee also met with selected members of management and the independent public accountants to review financial statements (including quarterly reports), discussing such matters as the quality of earnings; estimates, reserves, and accruals; suitability of accounting principles; highly judgmental areas; and audit adjustments whether or not recorded.

In addition, the Audit Committee considered the quality and adequacy of the Company's internal controls and the status of pending litigation, taxation matters and other areas of oversight to the financial reporting and audit process that the Audit Committee felt appropriate.

Management's responsibility for financial reporting and the report and opinion of Deloitte & Touche LLP are filed separately in the annual report and should be read in conjunction with this letter and review of the financial statements. Based on the reviews and discussions with management and Deloitte & Touche LLP noted above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board (and the Board approved) that the Company's audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000 to be filed with the Commission. The Audit Committee also determined that the provision of the Other Services was compatible with maintaining Deloitte & Touche LLP's independence.

Based upon its work and the information received in the inquiries outlined above, the Audit Committee is satisfied that its responsibilities under the charter for the period ended December 31, 2000, were met and that the financial reporting and audit processes of the Company are functioning effectively.

FEES OF THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2000

DESCRIPTION OF FEES	AMOUNT
-----	-----
<S>	<C>
Audit Fees(1)	$279,000
Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees	$0
All Other Fees(2)	$120,000

- (1) Includes fees for the audits of the December 31, 2000 consolidated financial statements of the Company and its subsidiary, Lifestyle Footwear, Inc., and reviews of the related quarterly financial statements included in Quarter Reports on Form 10-Q for the 2000 fiscal year and direct engagement expenses.
- (2) The Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors has considered whether the rendering of such non-audit services by Deloitte & Touche LLP is compatible with maintaining the principal accountant's independence.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

During 2000, the members of the Stock Option and Compensation Committee were Messrs. Stewart (Chairman), Stix, Brown and Rockey. Mr. Stix was a member of the Stock Option and Compensation Committee until June 15, 2000, the date of his resignation from the Board of Directors, and Mr. Rockey began serving on the Stock Option and Compensation Committee, effective as of the same date. None of these members was an executive officer or employee of the Company or its subsidiaries during or prior to his service as a member of the Stock Option and Compensation Committee, except Mr. Stix who was employed by the Company from 1994 through 1995. Certain other directors, executive officers, and principal shareholders of the Company, or members of their immediate families, have participated in transactions with, or have had certain business relationships with, the Company during 2000.

The Company leases its 41,000 square foot manufacturing facility in Nelsonville, Ohio, from the William Brooks Real Estate Company, an Ohio corporation, 20% of which is owned by Mike Brooks. The lease expires in April 2003 and is renewable for one five-year term. The lease provides for rent at the rate of $7,500 per month for the last two years of the lease term. The Company believes, based on its knowledge of comparable properties, that this lease was made on terms no less favorable to the Company or its affiliates than it could have obtained from unrelated parties.

Mr. Loveland, a director of the Company, is a partner in the law firm of Porter, Wright, Morris & Arthur LLP, which provides legal services to the Company.

Pursuant to an August 3, 1994, agreement with The Kravetz Group, a company controlled by Stanley I. Kravetz, a member of the Board of Directors, the Company has employed The Kravetz Group as the Company's exclusive worldwide trademark licensing agent to locate prospective licensees to offer non-footwear products consistent with the Company's brand image and bearing the Company's trademarks. The agreement continues from year to year and may be terminated by either party upon two months written notice. The Kravetz Group is to receive one-third of the license fees received by the Company from licensees introduced by The Kravetz Group. The Kravetz Group is responsible for its own expenses, except expenses for mailing marketing materials, travel to and from the Company, and attendance at trade shows at the request of the Company.

Pursuant to a September 14, 1998, agreement with Philip's Kids, LLC ("Philip's Kids"), a company controlled by Mr. Kravetz, the Company has employed Philip's Kids as the Company's exclusive trademark licensee for the production and sale of children's footwear and non-footwear products consistent with the Company's brand image and bearing the Company's trademarks. Philip's Kids pays to the Company an earned royalty of six percent of the net sales price of licensed products sold or otherwise disposed of by Philip's Kids. Under the agreement, Philip's Kids is required to pay a minimum guaranteed royalty to the Company during each year of the term of the agreement. The agreement provides that, after four years, the Company shall have the option to acquire all of Philip's Kids' rights under the agreement.

The Company believes that all terms of the transactions and existing arrangements set forth above are no less favorable to the Company than similar transactions and arrangements which might have been entered into with unrelated parties.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Company's officers and directors, and greater than 10% shareholders, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership of the Company's securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Copies of the reports are required by SEC regulation to be furnished to the Company. Based on its review of such reports and written representations from reporting persons, the Company believes that all filing requirements were complied with during fiscal 2000, except for two late Form 4 filings by Mr. Stewart.

PROPOSALS BY SHAREHOLDERS FOR 2002 ANNUAL MEETING

Each year the Board of Directors submits its nominations for election of directors at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Other proposals may be submitted by the Board of Directors or the shareholders for inclusion in the Proxy Statement for action at the Annual Meeting. Any proposal submitted by a stockholder for inclusion in the Proxy Statement for the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held in 2002 must be received by the Company (addressed to the attention of the Secretary) on or before December 17, 2001. Any stockholder proposal submitted outside the processes of Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 for presentation at our 2002 annual meeting will be considered untimely for purposes of Rule 14a-4 and 14a-5 if notice thereof is received by the Company after March 2, 2002. To be submitted at the meeting, any such proposal must be a proper subject for stockholder action under the laws of the State of Delaware.

OTHER MATTERS

As of the date of this Proxy Statement, management knows of no other business that will come before the meeting. Should any other matter requiring a vote of the shareholders arise, the proxy in the enclosed form confers upon the persons designated to vote the shares discretionary authority to vote with respect to such matter in accordance with their best judgment.

The Company's Annual Report to Shareholders for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2000, including financial statements, was furnished to shareholders concurrently with the mailing of this proxy material.

By order of the Board of Directors,

Curtis A. Loveland
Secretary

APPENDIX A

ROCKY SHOES & BOOTS, INC., A NASDAQ LISTED COMPANY

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER
As Adopted May 24, 2000

This Charter sets forth the role and responsibilities of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company in its financial reporting system. The Audit Committee generally oversees and monitors management's and the outside auditors' participation in the financial reporting process. The outside auditor for the Company is ultimately accountable to the Board and Audit Committee, as representatives of the shareholders. The Board and the Audit Committee have the ultimate authority and responsibility to select, evaluate and, where appropriate, replace the outside auditor (or to nominate the outside auditor proposed for shareholder approval).

Responsibilities

The Audit Committee is appointed by the Board to assist the Board in, among other things:

(1) monitoring the integrity of the financial statements of the Company, (2) requiring that the outside auditor submits on a periodic basis, but at least annually, to the Audit Committee a formal written statement delineating all relationships between the outside auditor and the Company, consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and actively engaging in a dialogue with the outside auditor with respect to any disclosed relationships or services that may impact the objectivity and independence of the outside auditor and for taking, or recommending that the Board of Directors take, appropriate action, to oversee the independence of the outside auditor, (3) reviewing and assessing the adequacy of this Charter, at least annually, (4) making such reports as are required by the Securities and Exchange Commission and (5) making recommendations to the Board with respect to the selection, evaluation, and where appropriate, replacement of the Company's outside auditor. The Audit Committee shall have such other responsibilities as are required by the NASDAQ and the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Membership Requirements

The Audit Committee shall consist of three members. Each member of the Audit Committee shall meet the independence standards and financial literacy requirements as established from time to time by the NASDAQ. Under NASDAQ rules, one Audit Committee member may be "not independent" so long as he/she is (1) not a current employee, (2) not an immediate family member of a current employee, and (3) the Board determines that membership on the Audit Committee by that individual is required by the best interests of the corporation and its shareholders and this is disclosed in the next proxy statement along with the reasons for the Board's determination. The members of the Audit Committee are appointed by the Board. The Audit Committee members shall select a Chair, who shall be an "Independent Director," as defined in the listing standards of the NASDAQ Stock Market.

Authority

The Audit Committee shall have the authority to retain special legal, accounting, or other consultants to advise the Committee with respect to its responsibilities and authority hereunder, to retain professionals and advisors to assist the Audit Committee in maintaining or improving its financial literacy, and to incur any expenses related to any of the foregoing. The Audit Committee may require any officer or employee of the Company or the Company's internal or outside counsel or outside auditor to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of, or consultants to, the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee may not, however, knowingly cause the Company's counsel to make any disclosure in a manner that would cause a loss of the attorney-client privilege or a waiver of the work product doctrine.

Processes

The Audit Committee, in fulfilling its responsibilities and in the exercise of its authority, during each of the periods indicated, shall:

A. QUARTERLY

1. Maintain minutes of its meetings (which may, if needed to protect privilege, be confidential) and make regular reports to the Board.
2. Review with management and the outside auditor the financial statement review completed by the outside auditor prior to the release of quarterly earnings.
3. Review an analysis prepared by management and the outside auditor of significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the Company's financial statements.
4. Meet periodically with management to review the Company's major financial risk exposures and the steps management has taken to monitor and control such exposures.

B. ANNUALLY

1. Review the annual audited financial statements with management, including major issues regarding accounting and auditing principles and practices as well as the adequacy of internal controls that could significantly affect the Company's financial statements.
2. Discuss with the outside auditor the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 relating to the conduct of the audit.
3. Prepare the Audit Committee Report as required by the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement, stating whether:

A-2

- (a) The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management;
 - (b) The Audit Committee discussed with the outside auditor the matters required to be discussed by SAS 61, as may be modified or supplemented;
 - (c) The Audit Committee received the written disclosures and the letter from the outside auditor required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), as may be modified or supplemented, and has discussed with the outside auditor the outside auditor's independence; and
 - (d) Based on the review and discussions referred to in paragraphs (a) through (c) above, whether the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the last fiscal year for filing with the Commission.
4. Provide the Board with such information and assurances as are reasonably necessary to assure that each member of the Audit Committee is an Independent Director.
 5. Obtain from the outside auditor disclosures of indicia of corporate fraud, illegal acts, related party transactions and/or going concern issues that may have been raised during an audit or review.
 6. Meet with the outside auditor prior to the audit to review the planning and staffing of the audit.
 7. Obtain reports from management, the Company's senior internal auditing executive (if any), and the outside auditor, that the Company's subsidiary/foreign affiliated entities are in conformity with applicable legal requirements and the Company's Code of Business Conduct.
 8. Review with the outside auditor any problems or difficulties the outside auditor may have encountered in the course of the audit. Such review should include:
 - (a) Any difficulties encountered in the course of the audit work, including any restrictions on the scope of activities or access to required information.
 - (b) Any changes required in the planned scope of any audit.
 - (c) An assessment of the accounting function, including the internal audit department, if one exists, and its and their responsibilities, budget and staffing.

9. Review any management letter provided by the outside auditor, and the Company's response to that letter
10. Advise the Board with respect to the Company's policies and procedures regarding compliance with applicable laws and regulations and with the Company's Code of Business Conduct.
